Introduction

The French Canadians have long been established in the province of Ontario. In 1615 their appearance was made with the first Mass said in Huronia. A quarter century later they made an initial attempt at a community setting with the experiment Ste. Marie Among The Hurons (1639-44). Later various Forts such as at Toronto and Fort Frontenac—site of the present Kingston, Ontario—left their marks in history. In 1760 the first Catholic Church was established then called Assomption, afterwards Sandwich and finally becoming part of Windsor, Ontario.

In Toronto the first ecclesiastical home was to be the parish of Sacre-Coeur (Sacred Heart) founded in 1888. It became a reasonably good-sized parish with many families undertaking their Catholic duties.

This book catalogs all infants baptized here from this church's inception to the year 1910. The compilation was made from a rewrite register so the researcher will notice a number of names initialized and in short form. A names abbreviation list is provided to help with this problem.

Entries are made beginning with the parents' names emboldened in each item. All the children of a particular couple are included if they were baptized at Sacred Heart parish before 1911.
